FAQ Sheet

Parent and Toddlers Club

How are the classes run?

The parent and toddler club is our Academies attempt to get young families into a healthy and active lifestyle. They are run during the day throughout the year. These classes are pay as you go.

How do I enrol myself and my child on one of these courses?

To guarantee you and your child a place on one of these courses an enrolment fee of £10:00 is to be paid. When you have paid this fee you will get a fitness record booklet for you and your child that you will need to carry with you to classes.

How do I pay this enrolment fee?

You can do this by popping along to one of our scheduled enrolment evenings (dates will be updated in news section of our site) where you and your child will get a free induction and fill in a form along with the correct full payment for enrolment. Alternatively you will be able to pay this fee via Paypal on the website or stopping by at one of our club sessions. You can ring and have you and your child's name put on our waiting list however, without the enrolment fee we cannot guarantee to be able to keep it open for you. Places are strictly on a first come first serve basis.

How much are the classes?

If you are paying as you go the classes are £6:00 per parent and toddler per class. Each additional child is £2:50. So if you have two children the fee would be £8:50, three children £11:00 and so on.

What else does my child need to be able to participate in classes?

The basic kit required for Parent and Toddler classes is as follows:

- Fitness record booklet

Club tee shirts and shorts are optional and can be purchased via our in club catalogue.

Do I need to re-enrol each year?

To guarantee your place in classes it is recommended that you re-enrol each and every year. The renewal enrolment fee is £10:00 per family.
